

Transitional Housing Policy Template

Developed by Red Wind Consulting, Inc.

This template is being provided to help you develop your transitional housing policies if you chose to use it in whole or in part. Items in ITALICS are areas you should fill in/describe specifically for your program.

Red Wind Tribal Technical Assistance can assist you in the policy development process, through conference calls, review and feedback on your policies to help ensure they are strong, effective and do no harm to victims. Contact Red Wind at info@red-wind.net to arrange a time to talk about your policy needs.

>>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> Transitional Housing Policy

1. Scope of Services

The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> has a program mission to >>INSERT GUIDING MISSION, VISION, VALUES>>

The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> Transitional Housing capacity is limited to serving >>INSERT NUMBERS TO BE SERVED ANNUALLY>> individuals/households per year to ensure adequate time and focus for the >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> Housing Advocate to work closely with program participants to address their needs. >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> Transitional Housing participants can stay in the program for >>DEFINE YOUR PROGRAM LENGTH, minimum of 6 months up to a maximum of 24 months>>.

All services in the program are voluntary. >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> will encourage participants to utilize the options made available to them to reap the full benefit of the program, however, there are no consequences for a participant declining any aspect of the program.

The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> recognizes that some participants may have needs that exceed the scope of the assistance outlined above or may require more than 24 months of assistance. >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> will consult with its assigned Program Specialist at the Office on Violence Against Women before offering assistance to a participant that exceeds the scope of allowable assistance.

>>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> will use a portion of its funds that it received from its Office of Violence Against Women (OVW) Grants to Tribal Governments Program award to provide Transitional Housing exclusively to adult victims of domestic violence (intimate partner), dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> is strictly a transitional housing program and not an emergency shelter response.

The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> offers the following program components: >>DESCRIBE EACH ASPECT OF YOUR PROGRAM, some suggested program areas include safety planning, recovery from violence, housing advocacy and economic advocacy>>

>>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> will employ the following practices to ensure that the funds are used only to assist eligible victim participants, and will do so in ways that do not compromise victim safety.

2. Eligibility for Services

The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> will serve persons who self-identify as a victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, and stalking. The individual or head of household must be 18 years old or older or legally emancipated. The victim must be able to live independently, without access to staff or support 24-hours per day, 7 days per week. Direct services for children is not being provided to children, including children who witness domestic violence or victims of child abuse, except where the child(ren) meet the program eligibility for >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> Transitional Housing services or where such services are an ancillary part of providing transitional housing services to the child's parent (or legal guardian) who is a victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence of stalking.

Victims eligible to be served by the >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> Transitional Housing are survivors: (1) who are homeless, or in need of transitional housing assistance, as a result of a situation of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking; and (2) for whom emergency shelter services or other crisis intervention services are unavailable or insufficient.

Victims must have recently fled/be fleeing domestic abuse, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking without sufficient emergency or transitional housing available.

The >>INSERT PROGRAM NAME>> target population is >>DEFINE YOUR TARGET POPULATIONS>>.
